Born in Madrid and with a long career in show business, Miguel Ángel Muñoz has come to make a start in our country with his participation in the series “Capadocia” where he will surprise us.

Multifaceted, good-looking and very passionate about soccer, Miguel Ángel talks to us about his projects underway in our country and at the international level, and also how lucky he feels in the personal and professional arenas.

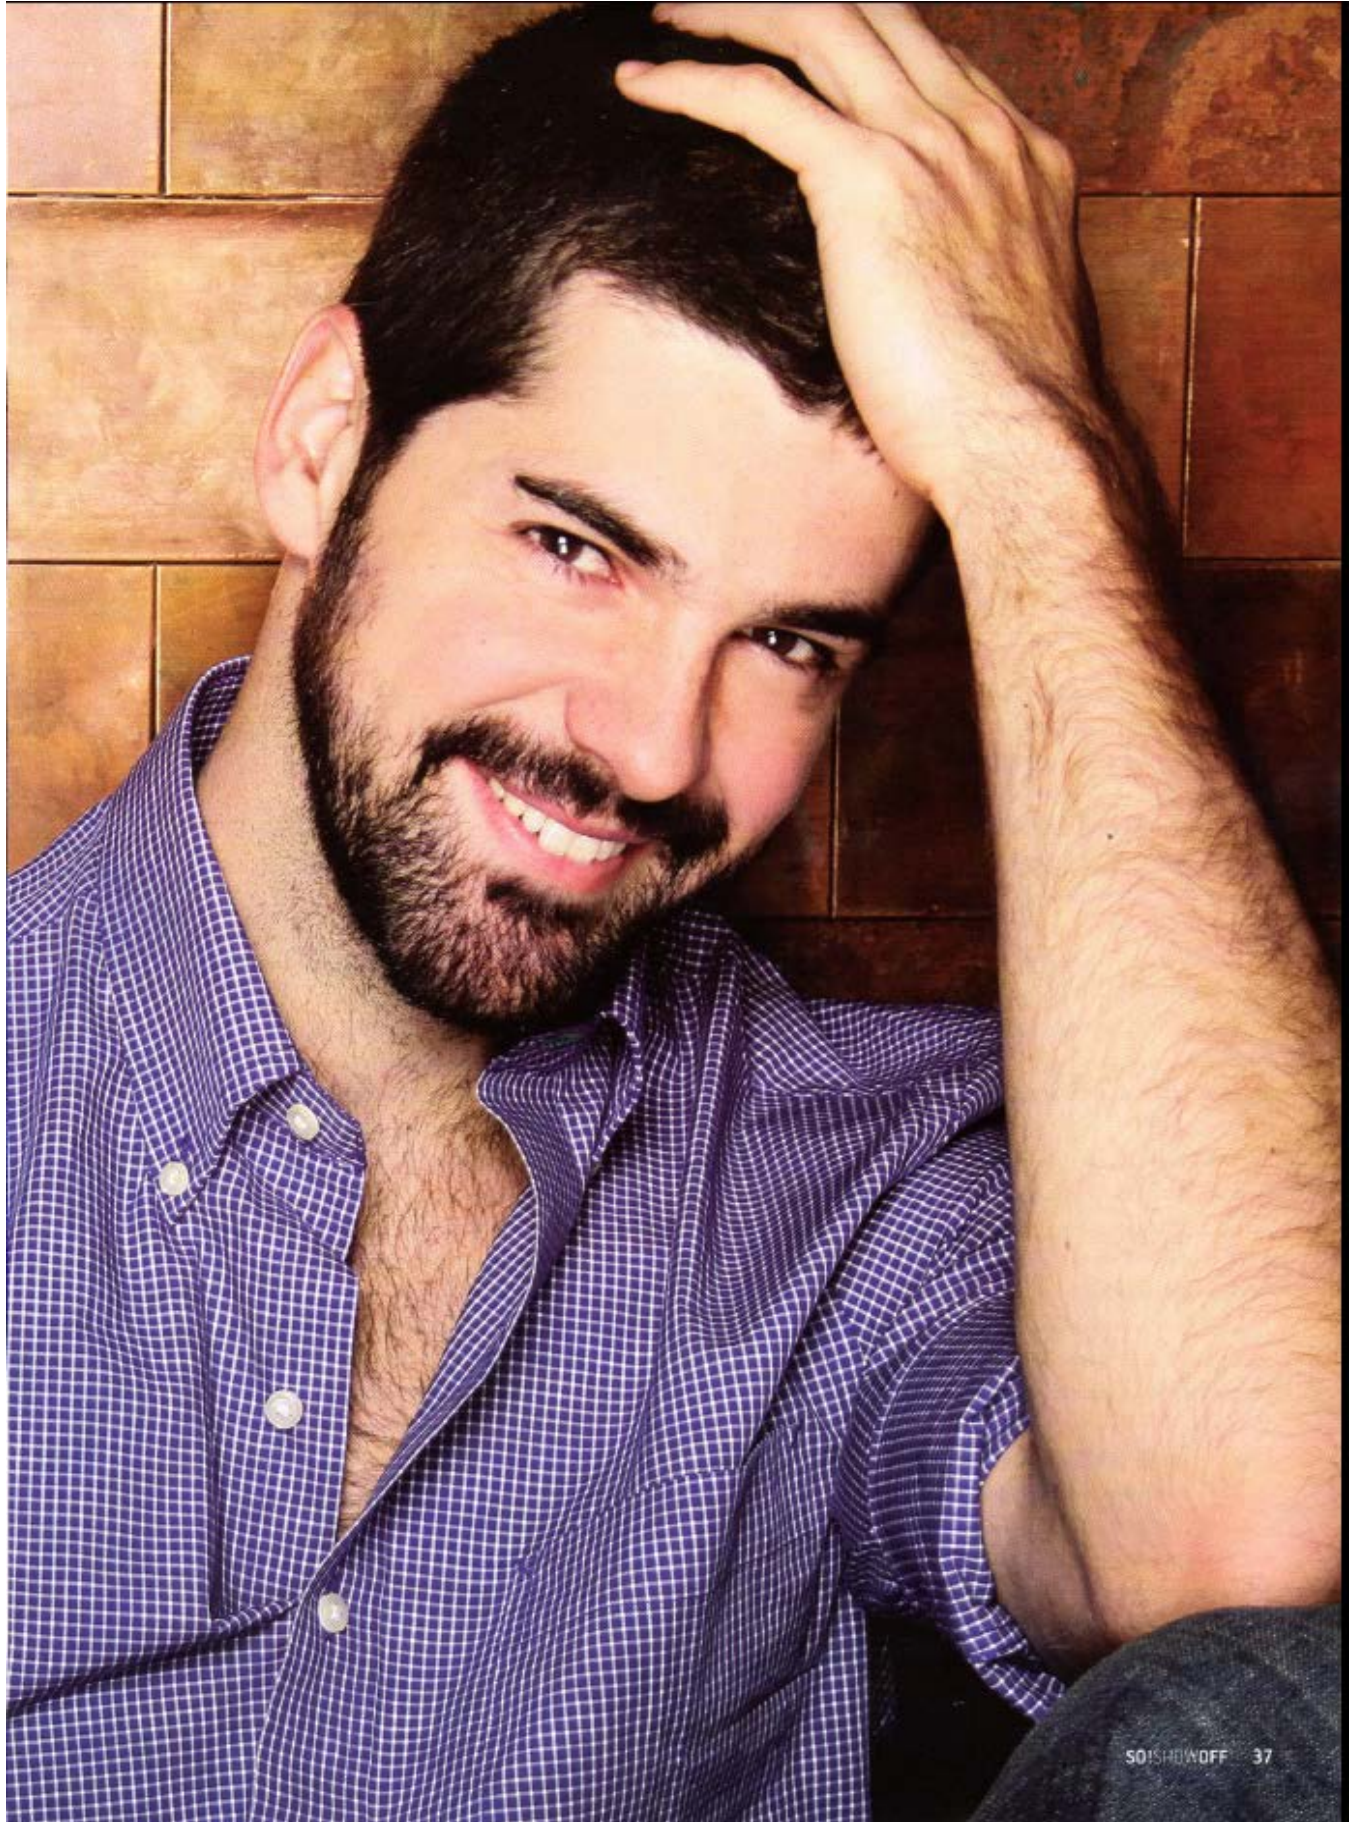

How do you define yourself?

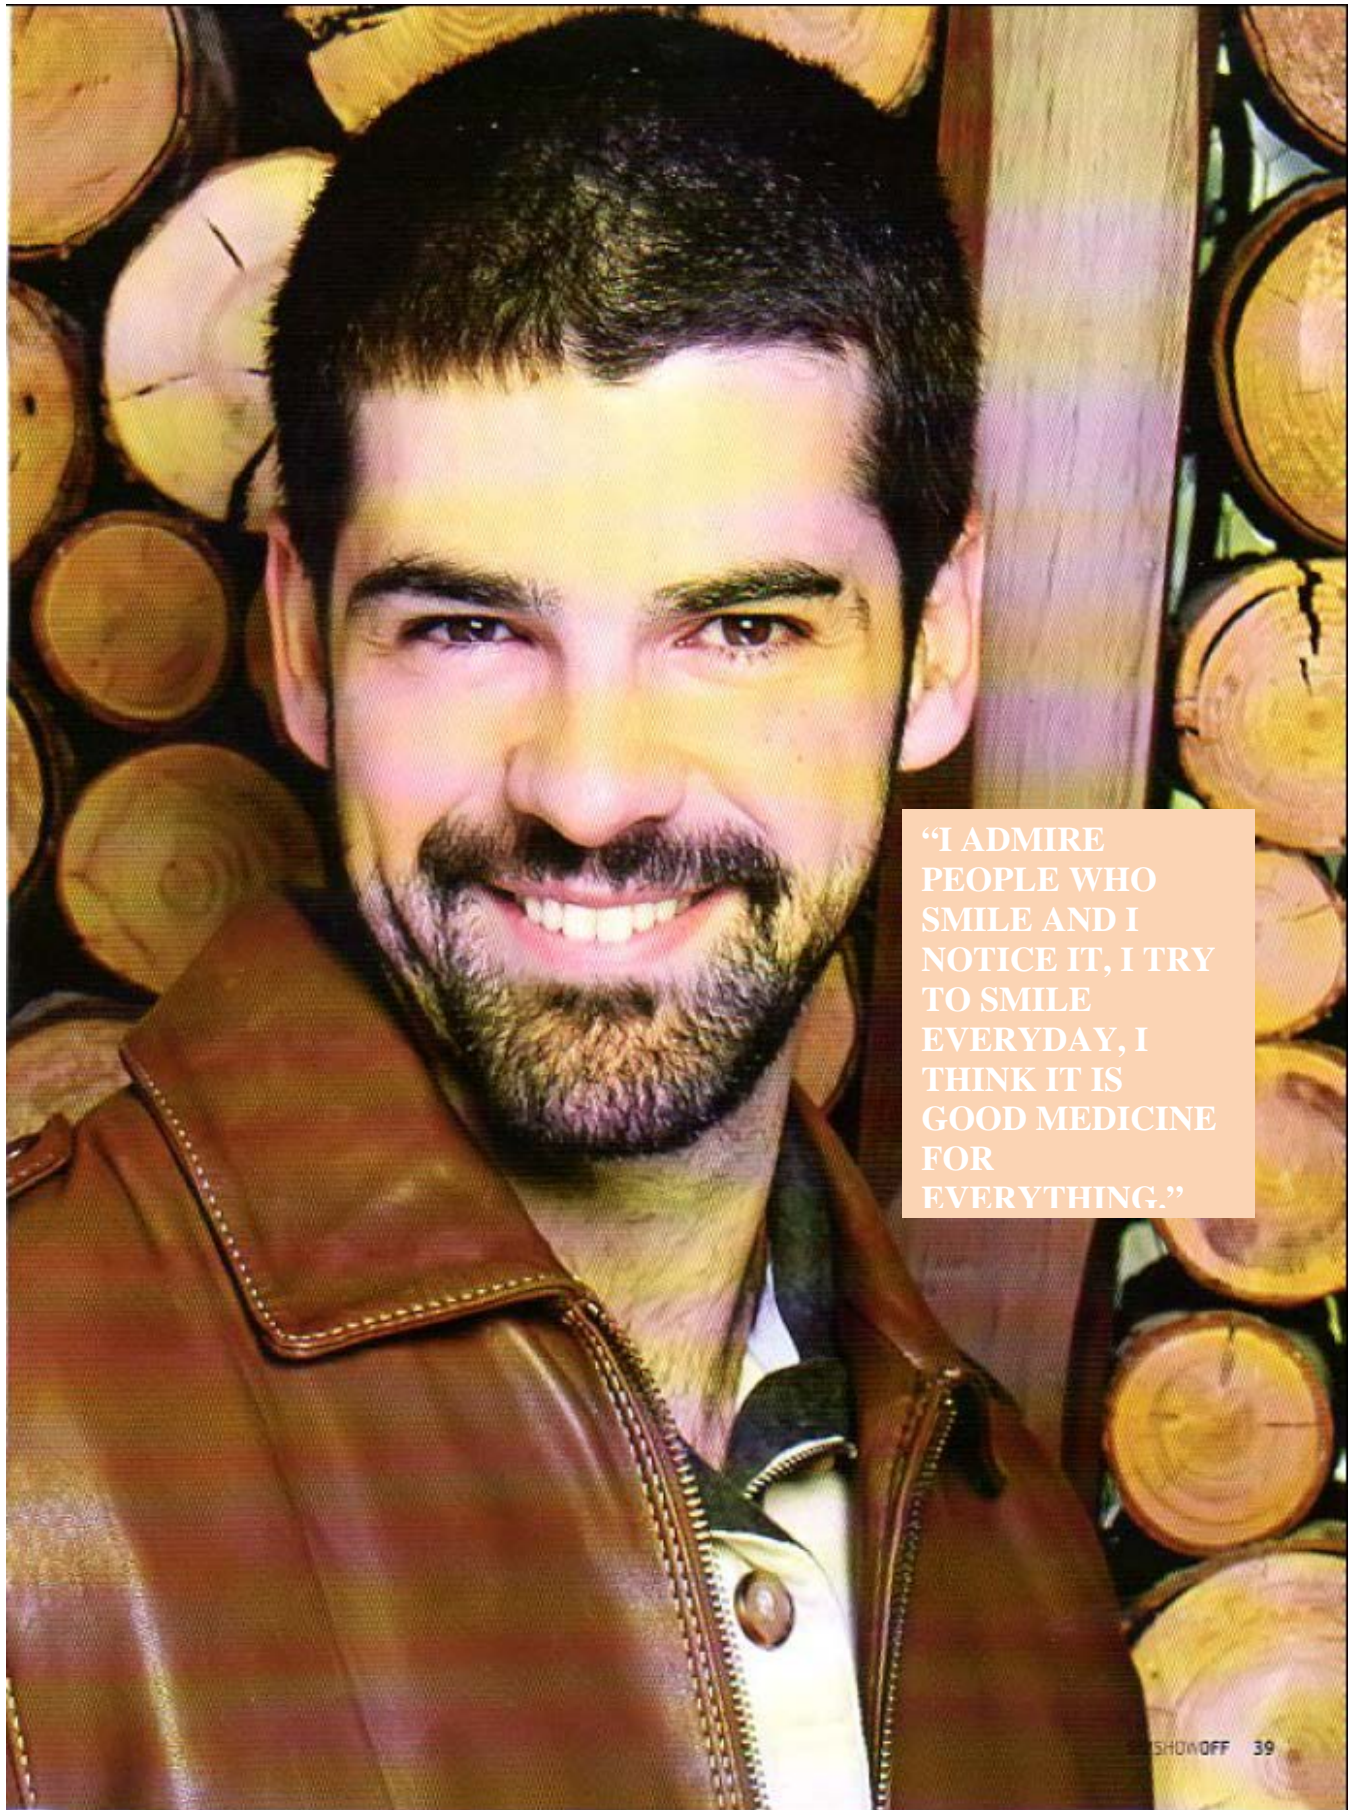

Hard-working, honest, fun and passionate.

You are a multifaceted person...you sing, you act, you dance, but what do you like best and why?

My calling since I began to work at 10 years of age was acting, and afterwards the music came up thanks to a very successful project and I had a really good time, it has been one of the most incredible experiences of my life. I define myself as an actor, and in addition I know how to sing and dance, etc. Acting for me is the most important thing, it is difficult to choose because one of the most memorable things in my life was being up on stage.

If you had to decide between cinema...
