

What are the evil commissioner from Aguila Roja and the doctor Lola Dueñas from Policías doing together? Isn't it a scandal that Luisma from Aída runs away with the innocent Teté from Los Serrano? Why are Lydia Bosch and Belén Rueda dancing if they have never shared a script? Globomedia, the fiction factory responsible for the most successful Spanish series marks its 15th anniversary, and we celebrate it together with a homage from its best actors to traditional television. GOOD NIGHT AND GOOD LUCK

Lola Dueñas and Francis Lorenzo

An unforgettable moment? “On the day of the September 11th terrorist attack we were filming and Andrés Lima, who was my partner [illegible] in the series, was able to convince me that the second Twin Tower had not fallen. He insisted that it was a repeat of the first one! LOLA DUEÑAS, POR DÍAS.

It's all part of the job... “This anecdote is very typical of the profession. In Aguila Roja I had a bedroom scene with the marques that we had to repeat several times. I came out the third time and when they said to me “OK, Francis, you can get up now,” I answered “I am sorry, but right now I can't...” FRANCIS LORENZO, MÉDICO DE FAMILIA, CO-WORKERS, ÁGUILA ROJA.
